

AFLPA TRANSITIONS SERVICE

PLAYER OFFERING

The AFL Players Association has a number of services available to members to support them during their transition out of the AFL Industry.

INDIVIDUAL EDUCATION ADVICE – TORRENS UNIVERSITY

We have partnered with Torrens University to provide players access to a range of courses that enhance skillsets and help you stay ahead in a rapidly changing jobscape.

Transitioning members have access to individual course and careers advice to best support their course selection, career and study pathway.

Additional offerings from Torrens University include:

- All AFLPA members are eligible for a 20% scholarship for all undergraduate and postgraduate courses
- FREE online short courses <https://aflplayers.torrensonline.com/about-shortcourses>
- No ATAR required to access under-graduate courses Torrens University's Approach to ATAR.
- Indigenous Scholarships and support
- Industry Placement support (undergraduate course)

ONLINE CAREER HUB – GOOD EDUCATION MEDIA

Good Education media are the leading independent publisher of digital and print resources to support individuals in making well-informed education and career choices.

The AFL Players Online Career Hub (<https://afl-players.goodcareers.com.au/>) is a great interactive resource to access and search information on:

- Careers/courses/scholarships
- News and Blogs
- Study information
- Types of Institutions
- University Rankings
- Registered Training Organisations
- Apprenticeship information
- Resume Templates
- Description of over 450 careers matched to courses

INDIVIDUAL LINKEDIN PROFILE AND CV SUPPORT INCLUDES – SHAUN COULTON

Former Olympian and LinkedIn executive Shaun Coulton has partnered with the AFLPA to assist members with developing or updating their CV and optimising your LinkedIn profile. Shaun, provides 1:1 bespoke consultations designed to maximise your professional brand.

- Direct support with the development and/or creation of your LinkedIn profile and CV

- A simple 2 step process for players based on a proven formula for success.
- A 20 minute consultation with Shaun to understand individual strength and to identify any specific areas of interest.

INDIVIDUAL FINANCIAL HEALTH – AMP

Financial Health check will provide members with individualised support, discussing their unique financial circumstances. This session is provided in a one-on-one environment, covering a range of important general financial topics.
